

Critical Information Summary – VOIP Phones

Information about the service

What is the service?

A VoIP phone service from IT Sales and Services utilises your broadband (internet) to deliver a phone service to your home or business rather than a traditional phone line.

Where is it available?

In conjunction with a IT Sales and Services internet connection, this service may be used at any location.

What do I need to access the service?

You'll need the following:

- An active broadband plan with IT Sales and Services
- A VoIP adapter or an authorized router is required. For an extra fee, IT Sales and Services may provide one of these. Although IT Sales and Services provides UNI-V phone services, it does not provide 'Fiber Phones' or Analogue Telephone Adapters (ATA) for its VoIP services.

Please note: Most telephones should work with your VoIP service, however we can't promise that all phones will function.

Minimum term of the service

There is no contract or fixed term for this service.

What is included?

Call waiting and voicemail are included with this service.

Do I have to bundle anything with the service?

Yes, a IT Sales and Services Internet account is required for this service.

Qualifications

Please be advised that if you do not pay your bill, are abusive to our employees, or violate our "fair use" policy, this service may be restricted or discontinued.

Premium call services such as 1900 numbers are not accessible through IT Sales and Services.

To avoid bill shock, international calls are disabled by default. You can ask for access to international numbers by calling our sales team.

OptiComm and NBN's equipment do not come with a battery backup power supply, and neither does any customer equipment. This implies that you will not be able to make calls during a power outage, including emergency service calls.

The maximum monthly sum for all IT Sales and Services VoIP plans is $150. On application, caps may be increased if the customer passes a credit check.

Please be aware that IT Sales and Services does not provide priority access to phone line customers with diagnosed life-threatening illnesses. If you require priority assistance, please contact Telstra.

Please contact your device maker about transferring these services to the NBN or OptiComm if you have a fax machine, EFTPOS terminal, security alarm, or medical alert.
